Dear Innisbrook Members:

March is an exciting month at Innisbrook with all eyes on Copperhead for the Valspar Championship. The course is always the star of the show and this year should be no different with Copperhead in tournament ready condition. It is especially fun for us who know the course so well to be able to watch the top players in the world challenge Copperhead from the tips with a completely different strategy. I hope to see you all enjoy some great golf as well as the other tournament offerings, include the Valspar Live Concert on the Osprey Range with Country star Chris Young and guest appearances by Big & Rich.

Mark your calendars also for another fabulous Wine Dinner with Chef Thomas featuring Penfolds Wine, as well as the very popular 3 Bites 3 Wines with Chef Caitlin, and some new excursion options for some local fun. Also, make sure you don't miss the Bravura Brunch on March 7th that benefits the Florida Orchestra. You will see all of these details inside and we hope you love these special events.

As always, I welcome your thoughts and ideas on special events and activities you most enjoy, as well as new ways we can continually improve your membership experience. Please feel free to send me an email at mwilliams@innisbrookresort.com. Thank you in advance for sharing your suggestions.

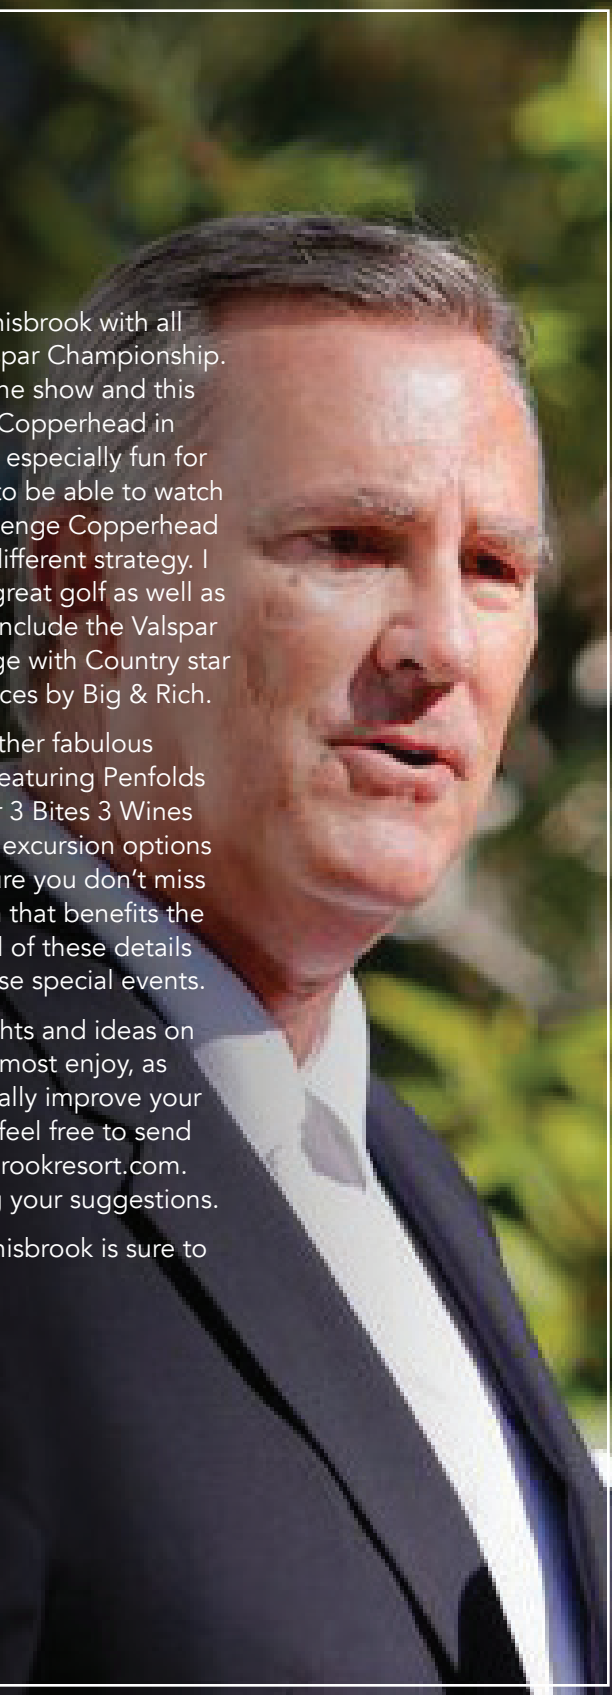

Wishing you a great March as Innisbrook is sure to shine on national television.

Warmest regards,

J. Michael Williams

Managing Director

From the Desk of the Director of Golf

Valued Members,

Happy Valspar Championship Month! This popular March Event continues to get better and better every year and this year will be no different with the #3 Player in the World, Brooks Koepka, and the World's #5, Dustin Johnson, in the field. We're also excited that our 2018 & 2019 Champion, Paul Casey, will be back to go for a 3-Peat; Paul joined us for our Media Day on February 24th and we couldn't have a classier, more professional person as our Defending Champion.

Another popular event during the Valspar Championship is the Saturday Valspar Live Concert at the Osprey Driving Range. This year Chris Young and special guests Big & Rich will headline the concert. If you've never attended one of these concerts, I highly recommend it. Admission is free for our members with your Saturday Valspar Admission Ticket. The show is scheduled to begin shortly after the end of play.

I'm confident that Innisbrook and the Copperhead Course will shine, as they always do, in front of the nationally televised audience. The golf course is in perfect condition and ready to take on the best players in the world. I'm predicting -10 will be the winning score, keeping the Copperhead as one of the toughest tracks on the PGA TOUR.

I look forward to seeing you at the Copperhead March 19th – 22nd,

Bobby Barnes

By Director of Golf Instruction, Dawn Mercer

What does impact look like?
When I ask a student to demonstrate where they want to be when striking the ball, in most cases they don't know. If you can understand the position and rehearse with some exaggeration, your ability to strike a ball more solid with consistency will happen much faster.

For more information and to schedule a Private Golf Lesson, please contact Dawn Mercer, Director of Instruction at 727-942-2000 ext 5383 or dmercer@innisbrookresort.com

A Word from the Pro

Calling All Volunteers...

Do you want to volunteer and be a part of an exciting tournament hosted by Innisbrook?

Innisbrook Resort is preparing for The U.S. Pro Women's Clay Court Championships April 13-19, 2020, that draws 64 professional players from around the world to Palm Harbor's only professional tennis tournament. Great players like Sophia Kenin, Coco Gauff, Naomi Osaka, Maria Sharapova, and many more all began their careers playing tournaments like this. Be a part of witnessing the next great one.

We are looking for assistance in the following areas:

- Volunteers during the week of April 13-19, 2020 (ushers, ball runners, ticket registration, parking, court maintenance, etc.)
- Lodging for the players and officials. Lodging only requires a place to stay, however, any transportation &/or a few meals is appreciated.

Our way to thank you:

- Our volunteers will be offered a pass for the day you are working, as well as a day pass to another weekday (Tuesday-Friday) of matches, depending on the hours worked.

Some background information on the U.S. Pro Women's Clay Court Championships:

It's been 34 years since the U.S. Pro Women's Clay

Court Championships have played, but Innisbrook Resort has announced the tournament will be revitalized on its courts in April 2020. The U.S. Pro Women's Clay Court Championships began as a national tennis championship for women sanctioned by the United States Tennis Association. The tournament was first hosted in Pittsburgh, Pa. in 1912, two years after the debut of the U.S. Pro Men's Clay Court Championships, with a doubles event added in 1914. The tournament had countless women's champions, including Staffi Graff and Chris Evert, who captured more singles titles at this tournament than any other woman. 74 years after its beginning, the championship ended its run in Indianapolis, Ind. due to a lack of sponsorship, while the men's competition persevered.

Since we have been busy preparing for the 2020 U.S. Pro Women's Clay Court Championship, we will not be hosting the Men's Pro Invesco Series Event this year.

The timing of this tournament will be ideal. The players will be traveling from Miami to Charleston and then to Innisbrook. They will be able to use this match for more practice prior to heading to the red clay at the French Open. We expect to host some of the top 50 women players in the world. All very exciting!

If you would like to volunteer, please click on the link attached and sign up at <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/9040e4eafae22a5f49-innisbrook>.

If you want to offer housing or have any questions, please contact us at 727-942-5241.

Blueberry Panna Cotta with Caramelized Hazelnut

For 4 People

- 9OZ FRESH BLUEBERRIES
- 4OZ BLACK CURRANT JUICE
- 4 LEAVES GELATIN
- 10OZ HEAVY CREAM
- 4OZ SUGAR
- 5 TBSP. SKINLESS HAZELNUTS
- NON-STICK SPRAY FOR ALUMINUM FOIL
- ALUMINUM FOIL

Wash blueberries, combine with fruit juice in a tall vessel, puree very fine and pass through a sieve. Soak gelatin in cold water. Boil heavy cream with half of the sugar in a pot and simmer 2-3 minutes. Pour cream through a fine sieve into a bowl, cool down for a short while. Take gelatin out of water and discard all water, dissolve in your cream mixture, add about 5oz of your blueberry puree and mix softly under your cream. Pour into Rocks Glasses or something similar and cool at least 4 hours. Chill remaining blueberry puree.

Combine rest of sugar and 2-3 tbsp. water in a nonstick pan and caramelize golden brown.

In the meantime spray your aluminum foil with non-stick spray and put to side.

Mix hazelnuts in caramel, set caramelized hazelnuts in small portions on the foil and let cool. Take your panna cotta and add your blueberry puree and top with your caramelized hazelnuts as picture shows.

For the past 9 years Innisbrook has partnered with Pinellas County Schools Extended Transition Program. The Extended Transition program provides 18 – 22 year old students with exceptionalities, who have completed their high school education, the opportunity to continue on with Pinellas County Schools in the school to work program that takes place entirely at the workplace. Total workplace immersion facilitates a seamless combination of classroom instruction, career exploration, and relevant job skills training through strategically designed internships with the primary objective of securing competitive employment. Innisbrook presently has 12 students working in various departments throughout the property learning a variety of skills. They can be found in the kitchen, bakery, housekeeping, shipping and receiving, golf operations, and tennis just to name a few.

Most people know Tyler who was in the program and transitioned to employment in golf operations almost 6 year ago. Tyler C. was hired in Stewarding in 2015 and Sarah in the cafeteria began her job in January of 2019. This January, Rocio "Rosie" was hired on as a food prep assistant in the Conference Center and has not only become gainfully employed but has made enormous strides in her self- confidence.

Innisbrook employees also benefit from this learning experience, as they enjoy helping the students develop skills for their future and are proud to be a part of the student's success.
